

Biography
Dr. György Mészáros

Personal Data:

Place&date of birth: Budapest, 8 December 1950
Marital status: married, wife: dr. Beáta Járányi
(adult) children: dr. Kinga Mészáros and Ádám Mészáros

Education:

1976 Eötvös Loránd University, certified chemist
2005 comprehensive radiation protection training and exam (OSSKI, ÁNTSZ)
2008 official public procurement advisor (Council of Public Procurement)
2012 public administration exam (University of Civil Service)

Professional career:

1976– instructor, Semmelweis University
1992– associate professor, Semmelweis University
1997–2000 Széchenyi Professor Scholarship
1998–1999 visiting professor, Bayerische Julius Maximilian’s Univerisität, Würzburg
1999–2002 leader, SOTE Co-operation Research Center
1999–2003 supervisor, Rational Active Agent Research Center
2003–2007 strategic and educational director, Rational Active Agent Research Center
2002–2007 scientific, then strategic director, SOTE Co-operation Research Center
2008–2011 founding director, Semmelweis University, Theoretical Medical Center
2011–2013 chairman, Semmelweis University, Theoretical Medical Center
2013–2015 director-general, Semmelweis Egyetem Theoretical Medical Center
2011–2013 chairman, National Innovation Office
1 July 2017 chairman of the Board of Directors, MVM Paks II. Nuclear Power Plant Development Ltd.

Over the past twenty years he has held positions in directoral, executive and supervisory boards in several companies, he was member of the Board of Directors of MVM (1999-2002) and chairman of the Board of Directors of Paks NPP Jsc. (2000-2002). He is writer and examiner of energy studies, articles, analyzes, energy concepts, investment advisor in energetics projects, maker of professional materials and strategies.